Product Description

A generous introduction to shape sorting!

Give the gift of learning with these six three-dimensional shaped gift boxes made from durable cardboard. Children study the real-life photographs on the cards and sort them into the corresponding shaped box. Reverse-sides feature the shape outlines for self-checking. Includes 6 boxes (circle, square, oblong, oval, triangle and star), 90 cards and Activity Guide.

kill Development:

Language- Imaginative and pretend play with the presents will inspire receptive and expressive language skills with peers while learning the different shape names.

Math- Students can master the shapes, number of sides and engage in early math skills like counting the number of sorted photo cards inside each box.

Organization- Six boxes, each of a different shape, allow students to sort and organize the 90 included photo cards into their perspective present.
